

Transformative coaching for world-class people

"To transition we must enter a state in which we are no longer what we once were, and yet we are not who we must become. We have to be willing to stand in the open gap and momentarily risk being nothing." - JIM MANTON

Hello, I'm Mandy Lehto.

I help exceptional people to identify and inhabit their best selves, every day.

My clients are already successful in their fields. They are ambitious and have a burning desire to step into something bigger, bolder and ultimately, more satisfying.

Many people live a 'bitty' life. They want to be a bit more confident and a bit better at work. If that sounds reasonable, and you like to play it safe, you're in the wrong place. Close this document and carry on. I truly wish you well.

You're still here. Wonderful.

If we work together, you are ready and willing to think bigger than you believe is possible. You're eager to go off-script and see what happens. You are ready to create a new way of working and living. After all, if you do what you've always done, you'll get what you've always had.

I don't work with people who are iffy about this commitment. It has to be a "hell, yeah!" or it's a no. My clients know that something better awaits. They are ready to leap. Cue the dancing, horns and confetti.

If this sounds like you, and you're on your feet nodding vigorously (and scaring the dog), we'll start with a complimentary 90-minute coaching session. The fit needs to be right for both of us.

Because everyone is different, I do not coach from a package. Your experience is custom built for your vision. You will invest time, energy and money in this process. You will bring robust commitment. You will be willing to change your relationship with fear. You will be open to feeling vulnerable and empowered. You will show up. Fully.

The desire for change and a persistent, itchy sense of dissatisfaction brought you here. What is this discomfort costing you? What is the cost of not addressing it?

If you're ready to make a big leap – really, really ready – please get in touch:
